CHAPTER 119.

AN ACT for the benefit of the Trustees of the Town Seminary of Princeton.

Whereas, it appears from the representations of the trustees of the town seminary of Princeton, Kentucky, that the lot of ground, and the buildings thereon, belonging to said institution are too small and contracted for the practical purposes and uses of said town, as a seminary of learning—therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

§ 1. That the trustees of said seminary shall have the right, and power is hereby granted to them and their successors in office, at any time after the passage of this act, to sell said seminary and grounds, with all their fixtures and appurtenances, at such time, and upon such terms and conditions as they may deem best to secure the interest of said town and those interested in said institution; and the trustees shall convey to the purchaser of said property title, by deed, with the usual covenants.

§ 2. The said trustees shall re-invest the proceeds of such sale in such other property as they may deem suitable and adapted to the purposes of said institution, and the wants of the town.

§ 3. This act to take effect from and after its passage.

Approved January 20, 1864.

CHAPTER 121.

AN ACT to incorporate St. John's Church, at Versailles, Kentucky.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:
