RECTOR'S PAGE

Dear friends,

The first time I drove to Versailles I came to the traffic light at Corner Drug. The light was on red, and of course I noticed the courthouse to the left. I noticed the Methodist church down the street. What struck me though was the road sign that said 'do not enter'. Of course the street is one way but as I looked I saw the church with the sign 'do not enter'. I talked about that 2 years ago at the Methodist Church when I preached a Lenten service.

Do not enter is a sign that we put at our churches in many ways. Unintentionally we say to God's children do not enter. In communities of faith we can identify certain tendencies that become characteristics.

People come to visit and no one talks to them. Our buildings have handicap parking spaces but no real accessibility to and in the building. We tend to associate with only those we know. We are comfortable with how things are and any thought of change is out of the question. There is a deep distress when someone is sitting in the seat that you have always sat in. Children should be dragged kicking and screaming from the church because they dared to make a noise. The list could go on but the message is the same. 'Do not enter.'

Yet we are moving into the time of Lent where we reflect on what God does through the death and resurrection of Christ to tell God's children that "do not enter" does not apply any more.

The church is in existence for the glory of God, and it does not belong to any individual. Any barrier that says do not enter has been created by humanity and is not in accord with the will of God, nor finds justification in the words of Christ.

I pray this Lent that all communities of faith, and the individuals that share the life of the community take some time to look at what barriers we may be creating that say to God's children 'do not enter.'

With all my love and prayers,
Fr. Alan

A St. John's Family Reunion and Baptism

Adam Freeman, Jeanne Watts, Frank Watts, Leigh Harvey, Brook Drury and the newest member of Christ's Body,

Noah Drury

On Sunday, December 28th Noah Drury was baptized at the same font as was his mother, Brooke, 25 years before. Grandmother Leigh was a member of St. John's for many years. In attendance for this wonderful reunion were both uncles, now godparents to Noah. Jeanne and Frank Watts paid a surprise visit as they were Godparents to Uncle Adam.

Holy Baptism is Jesus Christ's command and his gift to his Church. By God's grace, our baptism gives us the name by which God knows us, initiates us into the community of the church, forgives us and brings us to Christ's Holy Table, the Eucharist (Holy Communion). Baptism is once and for all. It is our baptism which formally constitutes our being Christian. During this season of Epiphany, the church remembers our Lord's baptism.

“There is one Body and one Spirit; There is one hope in God's call to us; One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism; One God and Father of all.”

Sponsors of infants, commonly called godparents, make promises in their own names, and also take vows on behalf of the child. They promise that they will help the new Christian grow in the knowledge and love of God, and in their responsibilities as members of the church. All of us, as members of the church, vow to love and care for our new members by our hospitality and prayers.

And we will with God's help!

THE VIEW FROM THE BENCH

By Stephen Leist

I have mentioned before in this column in connection with All Saints' Day about being reminded of my predecessors at the organ bench. It is now time to add another name to that list of saints who served before me as the Organist & Choirmaster of this church. Tim Oliver, who died on January 5, served this church for many years in that capacity before his retirement about eight years ago. I had the pleasure of knowing Tim almost from the time I first moved to Lexington in August 1993. I went to the first fall meeting of the Lexington chapter of the American Guild of Organists, and that is where I first met Tim. I instantly figured him to be quite a character, and I was never disappointed. Over the years as I got to know him better, I saw him as someone who always had a quick wit and a kind word and ready for fun.

Tim believed very strongly in quality church music, and he worked hard to establish that here. I am very grateful to Tim, because his efforts made my work in this church easier. He trained his choir well and instilled a desire to learn, bringing together a wonderful group of people who are united by their love of music and singing in one another's presence. It was Tim Oliver who called me when St. John's was looking for a new Organist-Choirmaster in the summer of 2004, and I have to give him much credit for my being here. Tim was also very much a professional. He stood up for professional standards from compensation to performance practices. He encouraged the instruction of younger children on the organ by starting the Lexington AGO organ academy, a special program in which young persons can receive a year of organ lessons free of charge, paid for by the chapter. I am indebted to Tim for all these things. We also cannot forget how he distinguished himself during the visit of Queen Elizabeth II to St. John's in 1986.

I was glad to see Tim make it to the Christmas Eve service and to be able to see him for what turned out to be the last time. He was eager to shake my hand and offer compliments on the music, especially the Mozart mass sung by the choir. He really loved having the strings present. I like to think of Tim as now playing the Great Organ of the heavens, and really playing up a storm, too. We will miss you, dear friend.

PALM CROSSES

Please return your Palm Crosses to church by February 24, Fat Tuesday, so they can be burned and used on Ash Wednesday, February 25th. The Altar Guild will make 2009 palm crosses on Saturday, March 28th and welcome anyone who wants to help us make 300 crosses for Palm Sunday. If you want, you can take home some strips and make the crosses at home, as long as they are at St. John's on Palm Sunday, April 5th.
Thanks! Fr. Alan & Altar Guild

ALLISON'S NOTES

Here is the poster for my dance school's show in March. I'll be performing (and a lot of my choreography is being staged), and would love to see members of the congregation there.

11:00am Choir Update

New music, new faces -- what a great start to the new year! The choir is expanding its repertoire and progressing quite rapidly into part-singing. We'd love to see even more new faces on Wednesday nights and Sunday mornings. No experience is necessary, just a love of music and a desire to praise God through song. Please join us at 5:15 on Wednesdays and 10:30 on Sunday mornings for a rehearsal prior to the 11:00 a.m. service. Contact Allison at allison.asay@gmail.com or (859) 321-2200 with any questions.

Game Night = Fun for All Ages

Set aside Saturday, February 7th, from 6 to 9 p.m., to get to know some of your fellow parishioners during an inexpensive and fun-filled evening of games in Hosea Hall. Bring a board or card game if you like (there will be some there), whatever you'd like to drink and a snack to share. Children are welcome as long as their parents are staying. Questions? Call or email Lisa Hawkins at 338-3012 or lisa-hawk@hughes.net.

VOICE LESSONS OFFERED

Please contact Diana Vetter if interested in voice lessons, ages high-school to adult. Lessons will be given on Wednesdays and Sundays.

JAMES IN THE PHILLIPINES:

As Christmas comes to an end and we enter into 2009 I have never been so excited to start reaching out to so many people in my life! There are a new batch of students that are now in class learning to be disciples for God! Feeding programs are back into a full swing and kids are being fed! This year there is a new ministry we have successfully been able to start. That is going to a jail in Tanauan which is about 45 minutes from us to minister to a new and bigger group of inmates! I am so excited and so should St. John's. The funding that has been sent by the church is going to be very much used to help out with the both jail ministries. This includes purchasing bibles and food for the inmates at both jails. We will attend every Tuesday at 3:00 p.m. to sing songs and give a message of hope and a new life to these guys. I have come to realize that even though not everyone can be in the mission field going to other countries, it still takes the support of others to help the ones that do to be able to things such as going to jails! I just want to say that the blessings are still the same for those who support and make things possible, and that is exactly what the church is doing by praying and also sending financial support. I just want to say thank you and I will be sending many pictures of the jail ministry so that the church can see the progress that is being made here in the Phillipines!! God Bless and Happy New Year!!
James

Let it snow let it snow let it snow

If there is snow, ice, threat of snow or ice, please do not try any heroics in coming to church. I would much rather have you safe and warm than risking life or limb on the roads. If you are stuck at home and need something, please do not hesitate to call. We have a few volunteers with 4 wheel drive that can get around in the snow and are willing to do what they can. Be safe and take care.

DIANA & EYC

Dear Episcopal Youth,
It's time for EYC to get started again for the semester. I am so excited about all the plans we have coming up! On Sunday nights we will be continuing Dinner and Discussion as well as Fun and Fellowship nights. Dinner is at 4:30 followed by the evening activities, either talking about a specific topic or playing games, etc. Also on Sunday nights there are special events and community service.

New this semester are the Sr. High lunches on the first Sunday of the month. This is a time for high school youth to get together, eat, and just have fun while enjoying the company of other youth group members. We will meet after the 11:00 service and choose a place to go. In addition, there will also be some events that we collaborate with other Episcopal churches in the area. Church of the Good Shepherd does the 30 hour famine every year. After last year's success we will be doing it again but this time with other youth in our area. It will be a blast! Registration is due Feb. 7th so let me know right away if you're interested! Following the diocesan wide 30 hour famine, March 1st, will be Youth Sunday. The youth will do the sermon, readings, prayers, etc. We will need everyone's help!

Wednesday nights are bible study nights. At 6:00 there is a church potluck. Bible study will start at 6:45 until 7:20 followed by a short worship service. This semester will be studying the same topics as the adult Christian formation class.

Don't forget about the Cathedral Domain. They have some great weekend retreats coming up as well as awesome summer camps. For more information go to www.cathedraldomain.org.

I will be at the church on Wednesdays from mid afternoon through the evening. Feel free to stop by or make an appointment with me. As always you are also welcome to call or email me anytime. I hope to see you all soon and don't forget to bring your friends!

LENT

Wednesday, February 25th, is Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent. The word Lent comes from an Anglo-Saxon word for spring, and the season goes back historically to the very beginning of Christianity. In the days of the early church, when Christians were often persecuted, the church required a period of three years of instruction before a person could be baptized. This was called the Catechumenate, and the end of this period always fell on Easter Eve. It was Easter Eve at the Great Vigil that the Catechumenates were baptized into the life of the church. The Catechumenates were also confirmed at the same time and received their First Communion on Easter Day. The final preparation for all this included fasting and prayer, and it lasted from Good Friday until Easter Day. Later this was lengthened to one week before Easter and everyone in the church, not just the Catechumenates, prepared with fasting and prayer. Over the centuries, as the church grew and moved further throughout the world, the forty days of Lent developed as a kind of reenactment of the 40 days Christ spent in the wilderness. There is also the association of the wandering of the Jews for 40 years after their deliverance from Egypt. As the custom of baptizing and confirming on Easter Day passed generally out of use, Lent became a time of penitence, a time of self-examination, and a time of preparation for Easter.

The first day of Lent is Ash Wednesday, February 25th. In the Bible the symbols of penitence are sackcloth and ashes. On Ash Wednesday we will have three services of Holy Eucharist and Imposition of Ashes for those who desire it. Service times are at 7 a.m., noon, and 7 p.m. The ashes used are from last year's palm crosses and strips and they remind us of our mortality—"remember that you are dust, and unto dust you shall return."

Shrove Tuesday is the day before Ash Wednesday. Shrove is from the old English word Shrive, which meant to forgive. The custom of eating pancakes on Shrove Tuesday goes back to the days when all fat and meat was forbidden during Lent. To use up all this stuff, pancakes were made and eaten with meat. The French term Mardi Gras means Fat Tuesday, the word carnival means good-bye to meat. Hence, Shrove Tuesday was and is a great day of celebration.

NATIVITY FIGURES

After years and years of being unwrapped, displayed, and then just put away again, our figures were showing lots of wear last year. They had chips, missing paint, and general world-weariness.

Last year Vicki Freeman took them home and has completely reconditioned them. They all have been carefully painted and have been given lots of personality!

Thanks so much Vicki!

#the READING CLUB

Hey Guys! What are you doing February 11? The Reading Club is having a 'Guys Day In' and would like for you to come and let the children read to you and show you how great they are doing! We'd need you there from 3:15 to 4:45. Interested? See Julie Ross or Katherine Harper to volunteer for this great ministry!

NEW BEGINNINGS FOR WEDNESDAYS

Our building is beautifully renovated, and we are now able to use it as God would have us use it.

On Wednesdays we are beginning a new way of Christian formation for individuals and families. This is in addition to our Sunday morning program for our children. We will begin with a pot luck at 6 p.m. (optional). Church will provide drinks so bring your favorite dishes to share with folks.

At 6:45 we will break into classes for the different age groups. We will study the same topic.

At 7:20 we will end with a short worship time, and be on our way by 7:40.

Hopefully by studying the same topic families can begin to share what they learned and their understanding of what has been discussed.

We are looking forward to new beginning and hope to see you there.

ECW

The ECW (Episcopal Church Women) of St. John's have been busy ladies this year. There was the wonderful inaugural Mayfest, fabulous Derby party, the very successful retreat in August and the ever-popular Christmas Bazaar. A big thank you to this year's officers for such a great job! At its December 20, 2008 meeting and ornament exchange, the ECW voted to make the following distributions of their funds:

St. John's Cabin renovation	$ 1,500
Domain Camp scholarships	$ 1,500
Rector's discretionary fund	$ 1,000
Deacon's discretionary fund	$ 1,000
Daughter's of the King	$ 500
Youth Christian Formation	$ 500
Garden Committee	$ 500
Hope Ministries	$ 500
Total	$ 7,000

It is also anticipated that approximately $2,500 will be coming out of the account to pay for special items in the kitchen remodeling which are an ice maker, disposal, pot filler faucet and tile back splash.

New officers were also elected: Carole Mize, President; Nikki Berger, Vice President; Rhonda Wade, Recording Secretary; Melissa Sloane, Corresponding Secretary; Katherine Harper, Treasurer.

Women of St. John's!

Love your neighbor this Valentine's Day! Invite a friend to share laughs and lunch!

All St. John's women are invited to ECW's Valentine luncheon in the parish hall on Saturday, February 14th. Bring a dish to share, something savory or sweet, red or pink or white or chocolate---or one that's simply delicious---and join in the fun! Invite a friend---or two---the more, the merrier!

We'll be the ones in fiery red or sugar pink, toasting each other with a touch of the bubbly!

Special guest Carol Whipple will introduce us to the fascinating Enneagram of Personality to help us better understand ourselves and each other.

For more information, call Carole Mize at 873-9606.

RESTORATION

ALPHABET SOUP?

Ever wonder what all those letters mean? ECW, EYC, LEM, DOK, AG, EFM and many more? Come and find out! OPEN HOUSE AND MINISTRIES FAIR FEBRUARY 15 from 12-4 p.m. Check out all the ministries at St. John's in Hosea Hall. Find a niche for your time and talent. Someone from each ministry will be here to answer your questions. St. John's is growing and we need participation from everyone. See all the completed renovations in the church, chapel and kitchen. Invite friends from the community to take a tour and see what we've been up to with all the work going on. All are welcome!

FEAST GROUPS TO START IN FEBRUARY

Feast means friends meeting and sharing together. Meet old friends and make new friends, share a meal in each other's home once a month. Sign up in Hosea Hall by February 1 so that we can put groups together.

RESTORATION UPDATE:

So far gifts received for the Restore Renew Rejoice campaign amount to $184,394. We have spent to date $41,351 on the church and $125,715 on the Hughes House. We still have the heating system to install in the church this spring which will cost about $78,000. The last week in January the final $11,000 will be paid on the kitchen and Sacristy renovation. The outside masonry and the work in the chapel will cost another $29,000. Then we also will finish the roof on the Hughes House, approximately another $28,000.

We have spent only what money has been received. We have a construction line of credit which we may have to access if pledged monies coming in lag a bit behind work we need to authorize. Thanks be to God for the very generous gifts of so many that are making this work possible!

RESTORATION

The Chapel will be done by the first of February. The stone has all been cleaned and the mortar and cracks repaired.

The hall by the office has a new ceramic tile floor. The walls have been painted and the woodwork refinished.

The Sacristy has a new ceramic tile floor. The cabinets have been painted white. There are new under cabinet lights, a new extra-deep sink with swing away faucet, and new counter tops. The vestment cabinet has been enlarged and reconfigured with drawers for the vestments and a shelf above for our sound equipment. The ceiling in the area between the chapel and the chancel had to be replaced as well and the walls painted. It is bright and cheerful.
