FROM THE SENIOR WARDEN

Thank you very much for your feedback on our proposed strategies for reaching the goals of our 3-year strategic plan. We would like to have the input of every member 16 years old and up. If you have not yet responded, please email me at katherineharper@stjohnsky.com and I will forward a link to you and you can complete the survey online or you may fill out a paper copy in Hosea Hall. We will receive input in these formats until July 31.

During brunch on Sunday, August 18, we will present the results of the survey and take any additional comments or thoughts you may have. Your input is vitally important as the development continues, and we hope that you will attend this parish forum. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me or any member of the Vestry.

-Katherine Harper, Senior Warden

REMINDERS:

The clear blue bags in the trash can in the parish hall means that only paper should go into that receptacle. There are additional recycling containers in the kitchen for plastic, aluminum and glass in the kitchen. Many thanks for your assistance and attention to this detail in helping to be good stewards of our environment.

St. John's Church is responsible for canned fruit and rice for the Woodford County Food Pantry. Please leave these items on the stage and they will be picked up and delivered. Thank you, Norma Downey, 873-1554

Education for Ministry, the four-year theological study program of the School of Theology at Sewanee covering the Bible, church history, and theology, will reconvene in early September at St. John's. The course provides a comprehensive, experiential education in the foundations of Christian mission and faith for laity. Tuition is $350. annually. Participants do not have to be members of the Episcopal Church. Because materials must be ordered in advance, the deadline for enrollment is Thursday, August 15. For more information, call Ned Meekins at 873-3991, 433-8826, or email meeki@windstream.net; or talk to any current or former participant.
